723.2

THREATS OF BOMBS OR OTHER HAVOC & DESTRUCTION

Safety of students and staff is the top priority under incidents of threat. Therefore, school administrators shall do all that is prudent and possible in the event of imminent danger.

The Board directs administrators to develop plans for each building that include procedures for evacuation and return in conjunction with law enforcement officials. Plans shall include procedures for normal school days and public events.

Any student found guilty of such threats shall be disciplined according to procedures that appear in the student handbook.

Any class time missed because of the interruption shall be made up according to Board direction.
