

The Evansville Community School District is a Growing District of approximately 1,850 students. We take pride in our small class sizes, our focus on the child as an individual, our comprehensive approach to academics, fine arts, physical fitness and technology integration, and most importantly, a caring and supportive learning environment.

District Office: 340 Fair Street

Phone: 882-5224

Website: www.ecsdnet.org

Academic Performance Data:

<http://data.dpi.state.wi.us/data/selschool.asp>

Ellis Island Day

Whom Do I Contact With General Questions About The District? Ms. Kelly Mosher, District Administrative Assistant, 882-3387, is available to answer your questions.

Mission Statement

The Evansville Community School District, in active partnership with families and the community, provides a positive learning environment that challenges all students to achieve personal excellence and become contributing citizens of the world community.

Evansville High School: Opened in 2002-03, and is a “state of the art” facility that incorporates geothermal heating, professional grade performing arts center and athletic facilities.

- 2006 Blue Ribbon School
- Advanced Placement Courses in all Academic Areas
- High Tech Distance and Education Laboratory
- Block Scheduling
- Academic Class Size Averages of 21
- Graduation Rate of 97 Percent
- Wide Variety of Courses and Electives
- Hispanic Community Project
- Bi-Annual Learning Opportunities in Panama and Europe
- Student “Home Building” Project
- Annual EHS Musical Production

Other Awards and Honors:

- 31 Conference Championships Since 2002
- $470,000 College Scholarship Funds Awarded 2007

J.C. McKenna: Our 6-8 grade middle school provides a block schedule, which allows students time to pursue their learning in more depth. Teachers operate as grade level teams and meet daily to discuss student needs. 385 students

- Full-Time Reading Resource Teacher
- 7th and 8th Grade Mentoring Program
- Two Years of Spanish Classes
- Grade 6 Offers 85 Minutes of Language Arts Per Day
- Comprehensive Gifted and Talented Program Restorative Practice School
- Middle School Raised $40,000 for March of Dimes
- Full-Time Art, Band, Chorus, Staff Members
- Participate in Yahara Writers Program
- Math 24 Competitor
- Masters Degrees on Staff
- Academic Class Size Averages of 21.8
- Conference Athletics Competition
- 71% of Students Involved in Band or Chorus
- No Cut Extra-Curricular Policy

Beth Oswald,
Wisconsin's Teacher
of the Year

Grove Campus Schools:

Our elementary and intermediate schools are located on the Grove Campus. Both schools share the expansive field house and cafeteria.

Theodore Robinson: Children in grades 3-5 attend our intermediate school in a building connected to the elementary school. Staff provides a child-centered program where resource teachers work closely with classroom teachers to help each child reach their potential.

- Full-Time Art, Music, PE Programs
- Child-Centered Staff
- 82% of 4th Grade Advanced or Proficient in Reading
- Small Class Size Averages of 21 Students
- Multiple Student Activities
- Gifted and Talented Programming
- History Hunters
- Science Club
- Theodore Robinson Singers
- Art Club
- Discovering Youth Art Programming: Violin, Dance, and Art
- After School Programs

Levi Leonard: Our elementary school consists of Early Childhood through second grade classes. Small class sizes help our students get a solid start as readers and writers. Parents have a choice of full or half day kindergarten.

- Small Class Sizes of 15-17 Students
- Student Focused Approach to Learning
- Resource/Academic Support Room
- Outstanding Community/Business Support
- Full-Time Art, Music, PE Programs
- Parental Involvement Through School Improvement Teams, PTO and Interview Teams
- Can Do Attitude Among Staff

2007 Musical "Beauty and the Beast"

Student "Home Building" Project

